

WOFC Prophecy

March 1, 2023

Evangelist Frank Seamster

Have I not said unto you, that my Glory, that my Glory, that my Glory, that my Glory is coming? That my Glory, that my Glory is about to be released upon this house. Have I not told you?

Oh, like the ocean, there is a wave that is coming more strong and more powerful than anything that you've ever experienced or anything that has ever touched your life. And I shall do a work in you. I shall release an Anointing upon you and the power of God shall rest upon you like you've never experienced before, says the Lord. I've seen your struggles. I've seen your struggles. I've seen your disappointments. I've seen, Oh, I've seen your discouragement, says the Lord. I've seen that, but at the same time I have seen a heart that's running after Me. I have seen a Church that is hungry for My Glory. I have seen a people that are wanting me. That are wanting Me more than they want anything else in their life and because of that, says the Lord, I'm about to release unto you without measure the fullness of everything that I have provided for you. From the Cross, to the grave and to the Resurrection and in Heaven, it shall be as Heaven on Earth, in your life, in your family, on your job.

Every hinderance is going. Every obstacle is about to be removed. Everything that has stood in your way and anybody that has stood in your way, I'm about to remove them says the Lord. Cause I see a people with a heart that is pure for Me. I see a people with a heart that's longing after Me and as My Word says, seek Me and I shall be found of you. You shall find Me. You shall find Me in the days ahead, says God, like you have never found Me before. You shall find Me, for some, as a Father. You shall find Me, for some, as a Mother. You shall find Me, for some, as a Father and a Mother. You shall find Me, for some, for some, as the Glory. You shall find Me, for some, as Him who destroys every yoke and pulls down every stronghold and does away with every bondage. You shall find Me, says the Lord. You shall find Me, Oh, in every way that you need Me, says God.

2023 will be different than any year you have ever experienced. It will be different than any time you have ever lived through, says God. For you shall see, and not only see but shall experience My Glory in ways that you never thought of, says God. Because I am determined. I am determined for those who have chosen Revival. I am determined for those who have chose to allow Me to bless their house. I have determined that nothing shall be withheld from them. Nothing shall be withheld from them. Nothing, nothing shall be held from them. Where there has been division, says the Lord, and frustrations, I shall bring peace between the Husband and the Wife. I shall bring peace between the parents and the children. I shall bring peace, My peace, that surpasses all understanding and yes, with that, there shall come joy unspeakable. There shall come joy unspeakable.

For many of My people have not known the joy. Many of My people have not experienced the joy. Oh yea, they know what happiness is and momentarily at times they feel happy but I'm about to release something in 2023 that comes with My Glory. That comes with My Glory. That those moments where you just experience Me, says the Lord, become longer and longer and longer and longer and longer. And the joy of My presence, the joy of My presence shall become your home, says the Lord. You shall live. You shall live in the Glory. You shall live in My presence. You shall live. You shall live in light, says the Lord. You shall live. You shall live and not die, says the Lord. You shall live. You shall live and you shall live and live abundantly, says the Lord.

In every area that there has been lack, there shall be more than enough. In every area that there has just been enough to get by, those days are over with, says God. Those times are over with, says the Lord. I shall release abundantly and above all that you ask or think, says God. I shall release it upon you in 2023. I shall do great and mighty things, great and mighty things. So don't despair. Don't be discouraged. Don't even allow your circumstances, don't let any of that, says the Lord. Close your eyes. Oh, but know, says God, that that which I have spoken this night, I shall bring to pass and I shall fulfill. I shall fulfill. I shall fulfill. If you will continue to run after Me, if you will continue to say yes, if you will continue to open up your house, if you will continue to allow Me into your living room, I shall do more and more and more says the Lord God.

There shall even be a speeding up. A speeding up of those things. Those things that I have said to you and promised to you, and it looks like that it will never come to pass, I shall open your eyes in a fresh and new way. And you shall see, and you shall see, says the Lord, a speeding up, an accelerated, an accelerated of those things. Even those things that you have waited on for years and years and years, have become discouraged and distraught about, and said it's never going to happen. God says I'm going to break through that garbage. I'm going to break through that. I'm going to drive through that says the Lord, and I'm going to reveal. And not only am I going to reveal, but I'm going to bring to pass every word, every promise that I have made to you individually and corporately, to this house and to this ministry. It shall come to pass, and even though it may look like its getting darker and darker and darker over in Egypt. In Goshen, where you live, there is life, there is provision, there is joy, there is no want for anything, says the Lord. Nothing that you shall desire shall I withhold from you, sayeth God, for 2023. 2023 will be a year like you have never experienced or walked in or lived in before, says the Lord.

Every place that there's been division, says the Lord, I'm about to remove that wall and I'm about to bring a oneness and a unity. And just like it says in My Word, in the book of Psalms, when they were in unity, when they were as one, the oil began to come down. And it came down on the head of the Priest and then down his garments to everybody that was in the house.

God says, "I want to Bless."
