

WEEKLY DECREE

This is my week, I will rule and reign over the powers of darkness in the name of Jesus. I decree paralysis and extreme destruction to any evil force that will arise against me this week. Let the door of prosperity open for me this week in the name of Jesus. By the anointing of God, I break every evil yoke over my life this week. I receive divine and unmerited favors this week. As I enter into this week, I recover all my lost items.

For it is written,

*“Thou shalt also decree a thing,
and it shall be established unto thee: and the light shall shine upon thy ways” (Job 22:28).*

Therefore, I decree that the spirit of Pharaoh that is sitting on my destiny shall die this week. I shall enter into my promise land and all enemies and giants in the land shall die for my sake. I send confusion, double destruction and great furnace to all my enemies this week. This is my week of jubilee and my deliverance will not delay. As my enemies open their mouths against me this week, I command them to be shut. I command brimstone and fire to visit enemies of my progress, in the mighty name of Jesus. Wherever enemies gather today and throughout the week, I command fire of God, air-quake and great earthquake to visit them, in the name of Jesus.

My destiny shall move forward and my eagle shall fly as my stars arise with great brightness, in the name of Jesus. I decree that throughout this week, miracles, signs and wonders will overtake me, and my greatness will become visible by fire, in the name of Jesus, Amen.
